Sales Representative & Consultant | Home Theatre & Automation

We require a dynamic, customer-focused, self-driven team player with well-rounded sales and people skills. You should be able to work in a fast-paced environment and be adept at self-management and task setting. You have at least 5 years of full time retail sales experience and the ability to work on the weekends. Traditional sales experience is essential and a strong focus on customer service and rapport are key to being successful in this role. Home electronics knowledge is ideal but not essential. The main role is specialising in home theatre and automation sales; however you will be expected to sell from within other related divisions of the business from time to time.

About you

We are looking for applicants who have:

- Strong self-motivation and takes pride in their work
- Solid interpersonal skills and can communicate clearly and effectively
- Ability to think outside the box with tested problem-solving skills
- Strong sales skills
- Excellent presentation skills
- A genuine passion for home technology or consumer goods

Benefits

What's in it for you:

- Base + super + uncapped commissions!
- Best industry knowledge and support at your fingertips from your mentors & managers
- Join an industry leading and growing company
- Friendly workplace environment
- Ongoing training and upskilling
- Career development for the right person who wants to step up!

This is a full-time role, and we are looking for someone to start ASAP. If you feel you meet the above criteria, please email your resume to sales@lifestylestore.com.au
